AGED MAN KILLED MAN WHO ENTERED HIS ROOM

Joseph B. Hill of Redding, Conn., Cuts Throat of George Higgins in Danbury Hotel.

(Special to The Herald)
Danbury, Conn., April 27.—Lured to a hotel by two strangers who claimed to have met him in Bridgeport and other cities, Joseph B. Hill, 78 years old, killed an intruder in his room last night. Hill is said to be one of the wealthiest residents of Redding, this state. The aged man said he was suspicious of the place and that he went to bed with an open knife under his pillow.

Hill awoke as soon as the burglar entered the room, and securing the knife from under the pillow rushed at the intruder. In the battle which followed, Hill cut the man's throat and he let go his hold on the old man and fell to the floor.

The dead man is one of the two who brought Hill to the Danbury hotel on White street. He was George Higgins and was born in Bridgeport, 45 years ago. He was a well known character about the town.

TOM PLATT WAS "BOSS" ADMITS COL. ROOSEVELT

T. R. Testified That He Consulted Platt About Appointments When Governor of New York.

(Special to The Herald)
Court House, Syracuse, N. Y., April 27.—Badgered into fretfulness by the tenacious cross examination of W. L. Barnes of the council of William Barnes, Col. Theodore Roosevelt admitted this morning that he did not accept the Republican nomination for vice president of the United States in 1900 until he had consulted with Thomas C. Platt, the "Boss". He gave other testimony in the $50,000 libel suit to the effect that he had considered Tom Platt his "boss" while he was governor of New York and that it was his invariable custom to consult with Platt before making any appointments and also advised with him on the other important matters.

SEVEN KILLED MANY INJURED BY DYNAMITE

Explosion Occurred 100 Feet
Under Ground at Valhalla, N. Y.

(Special to The Herald)
White Plains, N. Y., April 27.—Seven Italian workmen were killed and eleven others injured when a dozen sticks of dynamite were prematurely discharged in a cut-off trench of the eastern end of the new Kensico Dam at Valhalla today.

The explosion occurred 100 feet below the surface and few people in Valhalla knew what had happened until the families of the workmen began flocking to the scene.

About twenty men were working in the hole and the sticks of dynamite had been set and wired, when suddenly without warning the explosion occurred. Two of those killed were blown 20 feet under a pile of rock and mangled almost beyond recognition.

TURKS RETIRE BEFORE ADVANCE OF ALLIES

Evacuate City of Enos Without Firing Shot--Aviators Report Ottoman
Forces Enter City of Ipsala
in Retreat--Fierce Fighting in Progress

(Special to The Herald)
London, April 27.—Fierce fighting between the Turkish troops and the allied armies is taking place on the Gallipoli peninsula in the Dardanelles campaign, according to official dispatches received here today from Athens. The statement said that Enos, the city north of the Gulf of Saros, had been made the main base of operations for the allied forces. The Turkish garrison that has been quartered at Enos retired into the interior without firing a shot on the advancing allies after the commander of the Anglo-French fleet notified them that the ships would bombard the town unless the forces evacuated. The inhabitants were notified of this order and also to the effect that they would be allowed twenty-four hours to leave before the shelling would take place. The allies are now in full possession of Enos and are continuing to advance along the shore.

Aviators with hydroaeroplanes from the ships flew inland to reconnoiter and reported that the Turks were being driven into the city of Ipsala and that preparations were being made to withstand a siege.

FORTS NEAR CAPITAL SHELLED BY RUSSIANS
(Special to The Herald)
Petrograd, April 27.—Turkish forts only 16 miles from Constantinople were bombarded by the Russian fleet on Sunday. Several of the five forts shelled are believed to have been damaged.

GERMAN OFFENSIVE
BROUGHT TO HALT
(Special to The Herald)
London, April 27.—The Kaiser's third drive toward Calais has been stopped and stopped short. The German attacks upon Ypres have been repulsed and the allies have taken the offensive. French troops have retaken Hot Sas, on the Yser Canal. The English are progressing in an offensive movement near St. Julien, three miles northeast of Ypres. The Belgian legion announced the recapture of Lizerne, another town on the canal. Reinforcements rushed to the allies have permitted them to regain considerable of the ground lost in the first fur-tack of the German army. Official-of the war office are decidedly optimistic as the result of the latest news from Field Marshal Sir John French, simultaneously with its announcement of the repulse of the Germans at Ypres.

TWO SHIPS SUNK BY MINES.
(Special to The Herald)
Grimby, Eng., April 27.—The British trawler Recoile was blown up in the North Sea Monday, presumably by a mine. Several of the ship's crew are missing.

(Special to The Herald)
Stockholm, April 27.—The Swedish steamship Centric, of 900 tons, has been sunk by a mine near the Aland Islands. All members of the crew were saved.

FOREST FIRE
RAGING ACROSS
STATE LINE
(Special to The Herald)
Lebanon, Me., April 27.—A big forest fire is raging here and 300,000 feet of timber has already been burned. Many houses are in the path of the blaze and are in danger of being destroyed. Help has been sent from Dover and Rochester to aid in extinguishing the fire.

DYNAMITER IS PAROLED TODAY
(Special to The Herald)
Washington, D. C., April 27.—Henry
W. Leggett, one of the dynamiters convicted at Indianapolis in 1912, in the Iren workers' conspiracy case, was today paroled by Attorney General Gregory. He was serving a three-year sentence at Leavenworth penitentiary.
The warden was telegraphed to release him immediately.

The warrant for the parole of John T. Butler, another dynamiter, sentenced to six years at Leavenworth, was denied. The attorney general however announced that a new application for the parole of Butler will be entertained later, if his health should become impaired.

TOOK BATH IN POND; WAS LOCKED UP
Portsmouth Man Spent Night in Kittery Constabulary.

The services of the Kittery police were called upon Monday evening to aid in clearing up the mystery concerning a Portsmouth man, who greatly under the influence of liquor had wandered around in the darkness and fallen into a swamp near the York Harbor and Beach railroad tracks, near the Navy Yard station.

The man was found by Carroll Burnham, in the swamp nearly up to his waist in water. Constable Frank J.
Counoyer was called and together the two men pulled the stranger out and took him to the village lock-up where he passed the night. This morning he was released, feeling none the worse for his bath and incarceration in the cabinets.

Out by Wife.

ations haven't always been of the pleasantest, both he and his wife have been continually quarrelling and in January they separated. Last week
Mrs. Schiek had a warrant sworn out for her husband on the charge of non-support which resulted in his arrest.
Schiek accompanied by Constable Counoyer went to North Berwick this morning where he will be tried this afternoon before Judge Spinney of the Yorkshire court.

This will be Schiek's second ap-

The prayer meeting service at the Second Christian church will be conducted this evening by Rev. Percy W. Caswell, of the Court street Christian church, Portsmouth.

The following appointments were made by Bishop Hamilton and read off Sunday evening at the Maine Methodist Conference at Waterville, May 16, of local interest. Both Rev. Allen J. Hayes and Rev. Harold J. Macdonald have been re-appointed to their respective parishes in Kittery and South Kittery and North Kittery. Mr. Hayes' fourth year, and Rev. Mr. Macdonald's second year in town. Both gentlemen have made many friends in Kittery during their stay here and the entire community is pleased to learn of their return for another year. Rev. Joseph M. Frost of Auburn was appointed district superintendent of the Portland district to succeed Rev. David B. Hall. Dr. Hall goes to Augusta as superintendent of that district to take the place of Rev. Mr. Frost. It was an exchange of superintendents. Other appointments and changes of interest locally are as follows: Rev. J. A. Corey was appointed to the First Baptist church, to succeed Rev. G. B. Cornish who goes to Portland Falls as assistant pastor.

Rev. D. P. Faulkner was re-appointed to the Park Street church at Lewiston. Rev. Sylvester Hooper did not return, but was appointed pastor of the North Street church at Gorham, and at the churches at Buxton and North Standish.

BOSTON LETTER

Boston April 26.—Consumers of milk will have an opportunity to state their grievances in relation to the New England milk problem at an open meeting tonight in Huntington Hall, 492 Boylston street. The meeting is under the auspices of the Committee of Agriculture of the Boston Chamber of Commerce in connection with its investigation of the milk problem in New England. The chamber committee has already held hearings throughout New England during the past eight months, at which producers, distributors, transportation agencies and health officers were heard as to their side of the question and in view of the fact that milk constitutes one-sixth of all food consumed by the ordinary individual, the committee felt it was incumbent upon them to hear the consumer before their report was issued. From indications as to the interest in the milk problem it is assured that there will be a large attendance at this public meeting.

Governor Walsh has just signed these bills making them law: To provide for an annual license fee for registered optometrists; relative to the granting of licenses of the sixth class of intoxicating liquors; relative to the retirement system for the employees of the commonwealth.

One of the most interesting reports of the year is that of Superintendent Hollis M. Blackstone, superintendent of the state farm at Bridgewater. "In the late modern view of crimes and penalties," he says in one part: "It is too presumptuous to suggest that the words prison and prisoner be cut out of the Blue Book as defining a good man or woman offending only an alcoholic habit or vice? With all the leniency and pap being fed to serious crimes the unfortunate drunkard may rightfully appeal for some mitigation in classifying his offense—a fool habit as compared with criminal dishonesty, malice, cruelty, murder etc., of the more serious offenders."

Boston April 26.—Dr. James F. Norris head of the department of Chemistry at Simmons College, has been appointed head of the department of chemistry at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., and expects to take up his new duties this fall.

A curious situation has arisen in connection with the governor's resolve for an investigation of telephone rates. The resolve was reported adversely by the committee on ways and means; but it has developed that there are its senders enough from the report to make it a tie vote. The committee met with seven members present. Of these five voted ought not to pass. The two other members present, Rep. Alwood of Boston and Garbar of Milford dissented from this report but were not recorded. A pool of other members showed that Rep. J. J. Murray of Arlington, Martin Lonsomey, although not interviewed, will undoubtedly dissent, leaving the vote five to five. Representative Warner of Taunton, the other member was not at the state house, and his attitude is not known.

Governor Walsh has received the report of the special committee, appointed last year to consider workmen's compensation insurance and said that he expects to transmit it to the legislature as soon as he has had an opportunity to read it.

The Ways and Means committee are not very encouraging when asked if proposition is to be had in three weeks. They declare almost unani-

Senators Would Feel Absence Of Their Star Backstop, Eddie Ainsmith

Washington, April 27.—The Washington police court judge who sentenced Eddie Ainsmith to thirty days in the workhouse, and fined his teammate Joseph Engel, $50 for assaulting a street car conductor, is evidently not a baseball fan. In sentencing the two he said: "It is the character of their calling to be not heeded." It is to be regretted that a player of Ainsmith's ability should allow his anger to get the better of him to such an extent as to bring down harsh criticism on his profession. There are many gentlemen in the ranks of the ball players. In fact in these days, the gentleman ball player is the rule rather than the exception, and Ainsmith's fall from grace does not mean that rowdiness is prevalent among ball tossers. If eventually Ainsmith has to serve the sentence, his loss will be seriously felt by Clark Griffith. It is to be hoped that Eddie will learn a valuable lesson from this experience and will think twice before he engages in another exhibition of fistuffs in the public highway. He is out on bail pending an appeal.

ously that June 15 will be the earliest for prorogation. They say there are a hundred measures yet before them that will take a large amount of time to consider. The trip of the legislature to the Panama-Pacific Exposition is somewhere in their archives awaiting some courageous member to bring it in. Probably the committee would like to hold off on this until June.

That the time has come to discuss terms of lasting peace and that publicity is the means by which this process may be helped without irritation and without hatred, is the department of George B. Gallop, newly elected president of the Federal University Association, speaking before the Sunday Commons. "It is useless for us to discuss the causes of war," he said, "or to try in any way to bring about its end. But it is important we shall discuss and develop public opinion about the terms of settlement which shall make for a lasting peace. We shall protest that in the future, in the name of humanity and democracy, there shall be no such possibility of nations rushing into war without being ostracized."

The charge that the public high schools are a failure was made by Governor Walsh at the meeting of the Massachusetts Schoolmasters' Club. The charge was explained by the governor as due to the fact that college men without special training are permitted to become members of the teaching staffs. "In the primary and grammar schools," he said "we give over our children to well equipped and well trained professional teachers, but when we come to the high schools, we ask for no professional teachers. Instead we put in as teachers, boys who have just graduated from colleges."

Is Sentenced to Death by Carranza for Sending Uncensored News- Appeal Made to Secretary Bryan

Washington, April 26—Philip R. McClary, an American newspaper correspondent at Vera Cruz, has been imprisoned and sentenced to be shot by Carranza authorities for having sent out uncensored news dispatches.

McClary received an appeal for aid from John W. Roberts, another American correspondent there, and instructed Consul Sullivan to take the question up at once with Carranza. No official report of the affair has reached the department.

Various military movements in Mexico were reported today in official dispatches.

Carranza troops from Tampico are being brought to Vera Cruz and sent inland by rail. Carranza has released the American steamship Benito Juarez detained on the west coast on a charge of carrying arms for Villa forces.

Yaqui Indians, operating in Sonora, are charged with numerous raids and murders. In a recent attack on the town of the Richardson Construction Company, in the Yaqui Valley, they were repulsed.

Francisco Obregon, Set Free by Gen. Villa.

El Paso, Tex., April 26—American military authorities along the entire Mexican border have received orders to prevent the entry into the United States of persons known to be soldiers or any Mexican faction, it was learned here today. It is said this order grew out of conditions caused by recent border fighting opposite Naco, Ariz., and Brownsville, Tex.

Heretofore officers of the Carranza and Villa forces have been permitted without restriction to visit American border towns.

Several Mexicans held at the expense of the United States Government are at variance with both of the Mexican factions—controlling border and coast ports. Their deportation, it is believed, by officials, would be equivalent to their death sentence.

San Antonio, Tex., April 26—Reports of a break between Gen. Villa and Gen. Obregon, his chief lieutenant, were denied here in a statement issued by Obregon as head of the Villa aviation corps, who arrived last night from Aguascalientes. The statement said: "The authorities to say that the reports published about Gen. Villa's retreat are false for I was with the forces of the division of the north, I can vouch for the fact that up to Friday Villa and Angeles were working in harmony and conferring together in matters pertaining to their forces and there was no friction."

Order to Stop Mexican Soldiers Entering Texas.

El Paso, Tex., April 26—American military authorities along the entire Mexican border have received orders to prevent the entry into the United States of persons known to be soldiers or any Mexican faction, it was learned here today. It is said this order grew out of conditions caused by recent border fighting opposite Naco, Ariz., and Brownsville, Tex.

Heretofore officers of the Carranza and Villa forces have been permitted without restriction to visit American border towns.

Several Mexicans held at the expense of the United States Government are at variance with both of the Mexican factions—controlling border and coast ports. Their deportation, it is believed, by officials, would be equivalent to their death sentence.

STRANGE CASE OF DUAL PERSONALITY

Marion, W. Va., April 26—A strange case of dual personality was revealed in the conviction of Max Curry, a merchant, on the charge of setting fire to his store for the purpose of collecting the insurance. He was sentenced to six years in the penitentiary. The fire is said to have been set by one of many in which Curry figured.

Curry, who is well connected, was brought up in Lincoln county as a girl and was known as "Mattie" Curry. As "Mattie" Curry he went to school at Hamilton and after he was grown he taught school, associated with women as one of them and excelled in suspension. After teaching school for several years "Mattie" Curry went away and

After the war he was employed on the yard and as care taker at the Thatcher residence on Washington street. He was for many years an active member of Storer Post, No. 1, G. A. R. He is survived by a wife, two daughters, Mrs. Warren N. Davis and Miss Carrie Goodwin and one son, Mark Goodwin, who is in the United States navy.

Mrs. Edith K. Smart

The many friends in this city of Mrs. Edith K. Smart (Dixon) Smart, the devoted wife of Edward Smart, who died last Sunday afternoon, after a short illness, at the family residence, No. 67 Simpson avenue, West Somerville. The funeral will be held at 67 Simpson avenue on Wednesday afternoon next, interment being at Harmony Grove cemetery in Portsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Smart were married in the Middle street Baptist church, Portsmouth, by Rev. Dr. William H. Aldrich, Oct. 20, 1886, and for nearly twenty years have lived in Somerville. Mr. Smart holding a responsible position at the Riverside Press, Cambridge. In all the relations of life whether as daughter, wife, mother or friend, the deceased was true to every trust and endeared herself to everyone privileged to know her. She leaves an appreciative husband, a daughter, Alice Edith Smart, a son, Ralph Dixon Smart, a sister, Mrs. Alice Maude (Dixon) Timmerman, the latter of Chelsea, and a wide circle of relatives and friends to mourn the loss of one who was ever ready to contribute to the health and happiness of others; regretfully remembering her self. At her last hour of mourning it may appropriately be said "She hath done what she could."

You will like the taste of Cottolene cooked foods

In addition to making food better, Cottolene makes it taste better—gives it more appeal to the appetite—a relish that cannot be obtained with any other shortening or cooking fat.

Cottolene is a choice pure food product. It consists of the most highly refined cottonseed oil, combined with selected beef tallow.

Cottolene has for a quarter of a century been a leader among pure food products. Make your biscuits, your pies and your cakes more tempting, more pleasing to the palate, more easily digested, by using Cottolene for shortening.

Always heat it slowly and use one-third less than of any other shortening or frying fat.

Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply. Write to our General Office, Chicago, for a free copy of our real cook book "HOME HELPS."

BURBECK GIRL ON WAY HOME CRIES FOR JOY

EVERY EFFORT BEING MADE TO HAVE GIRL REVEAL SECRET
WHICH SHE IS CLOSELY
GUARDING

Manchester, N. H., April 26—Chief of Police Grady of Peabody, Mass., accompanied by the father and older sister of Esther Burbeck, the missing Peabody high school girl, who was found here last night, arrived here shortly before noon.

The girl broke down and cried when she saw her father and sister, and willingly accompanied them home by automobile.

Mr. Burbeck and the girl's sister were conducted to the cell where the girl was in confinement and had a prolonged interview with her. The father remained only 10 minutes, but the sister entered the cell and remained with Esther for two hours, seeking to get the inside story of her attempt to give the impression that she had committed suicide by drowning and her subsequent flight.

It is the belief of Chief Grady and of the local police officials that Esther has kept back the truth in many essentials. They do not believe her story of staying in the woods alone four days and nights. It is intimated that some one may have treated her to Manchester yesterday in his automobile and left her there; every effort is being made to have the girl reveal the secret which is believed to be locked up within her heart about how she spent the last five days.

The Value of Insurance.

The value of insurance—fire and life—has long been recognized and insurance never stood higher in public estimation than it does today. No prudent man holds property uninsured, and no man having the regard for his family that he ought to have subjects those dependent upon him to the risk involved in the lack of life insurance if he is able to obtain such protection.

And now men are learning that life insurance may be availed of in even broader ways than by merely protecting their dependents. The senior class of Williams college has just taken out 25-year endowment policies for the benefit of the college, and the sum realized will make a nice little life for the institution when the time comes for the payment of the policies. In addition it affords the members of the class an easy and a convenient means of showing their appreciation of their Alma Mater, and the insurance scheme is altogether creditable to the young men who have adopted it. Another fine example of what may be called collective insurance is the action taken by the city of Toronto, Canada, by placing an insurance of $1,000 on the life of each member of a regiment that has just been called to the front in Europe. The aggregate premium is $4,500 a year, and this will be paid by the city for three years, and the city will also act as trustee for the beneficiaries of the soldiers. At the end of three years, if not before, the soldiers living will return and then the city will cease to pay the premiums, leaving it to the men to continue or relinquish the insurance as they see fit. It is safe to say that few, if any, will surrender their policies, as their experience will teach them, if they did not know before, the value of such protection for their wives, children or other dependents.

In the early days of insurance there was more or less trickery on the part of some companies which led many to distrust this method of protection, but the business is now conducted absolutely on the square because, if for no other reason, the companies cannot afford to do otherwise. Fire and life insurance afford absolute protection and, as before stated, no man can afford to be without it, no matter what his present circumstances may be. The action of the city of Toronto is novel, but highly commendable, as it will result in substantial benefits to many whose natural protectors will probably never return.

The outlook is a little gloomy just now for the Connecticut members of the United Hatters of America. As the result of a decision by the United States supreme court the organization must pay a fine of $252,000, and unless the payment is made within a short time the property of members, which has been attached, will go under the hammer to satisfy the judgment. This is the outgrowth of the celebrated Danbury hatters' case, and it demonstrates that the time is at hand when labor unions must assume responsibility for their acts.

The strike of the pupils of the Yorkers, N. Y., high school because the principal is not to be retained after the close of the school year was short lived when it was found that persistence in the folly would mean appearance in court. This was well for the boys and girls and well for society. The management of the schools must rest in the hands of the school authorities and not in those of the pupils if the school system is not to go to smash.

At the annual dinner of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association in New York the members were entertained with speeches and music transmitted from San Francisco by telephone. That should furnish material for a few timely comments on the progress of the age. Such a thing would once have been considered a miracle, but the day of miracles is past. The miraculous is now commonplace.

The timesome Thaw case still hangs fire. It has now been decreed that the question of his sanity shall be decided by a jury. The public will have a sight of relief if this miserable case ever reaches its end. It has been a mockery of justice from the start and promises to be so to the end.

In West Virginia the law stipulates that cider ceases to be a soft drink three weeks after the making. And no one, in West Virginia or anywhere else, needs to be told what kind of a drink cider is after it ceases to be soft. As a nerve racker and brain twister hard cider has no superior.

Jess Willard won the fight, but Jack Johnson fared better on the financial end, receiving $30,000 against only $13,000 for the winner. But the brawny young Kansan gives notice that "money will talk" if he is ever called upon to defend his title.

The Episcopalians of Massachusetts refuse to ask Congress to stop the making of liquor in the United States. Now watch the prohibitionists "jump on" the Episcopalians.

ELECTRIC DRIVE FOR BATTLESHIP

U. S. S. California, Now Building at New York, First Ship to Have New Equipment.

Washington, April 26.—Electric propelling machinery for the new battleship California, the first battleship of the nation to be equipped with the electric drive, will be built by the General Electric Company of New York for $431,000. Award of the contract was announced tonight by Secretary Daniels.

The California is under construction at the New York navy yard, which submitted an estimate of $531,000 for a steam equipment. Mr. Daniels' decision to install electric machinery has created keen interest in naval circles and some officers think the success of the experiment will make as great an advance in marine propulsion as did the advent of the steam turbine.

"Not only is the electric drive cheaper to construct than a turbine installation," said the secretary, "but it offers also superior economy in operation, a reduction in weight, and utilization of full power in backing. The latter is an important military feature, which is not obtainable in an all turbine installation on account of limitations of space and weight imposed in the design of the ship."

"There is a further advantage that it will be unnecessary to provide a backing turbine, as reversal of the shafts will be accomplished through the motors instead of by turbines." The American collier Jupiter was the first naval vessel to be equipped with electric propulsion.

"CAMP WAUBAN."

Play to Be Presented at Rye by Campfire Girls and Federated Clubs Thursday Evening.

The word "Wauban" in the Indian language means the East or as Longfellow has it, "Wauban is the God of the East Wind."

A Campfire from Maine, "Camp Wauban," in camp in the woods of the Parson's estate, at Rye, have entertained a Campfire from Portsmouth and as the play commences the girls are heard saying good-bye to their guests. They then return to their campfire to talk for a while before going to their tents for the night.

During their conversation the possibility that people might return as spirits to places they loved best is discussed. Later two of the girls lingering at the entrance of their tent in a spirit of adventure wish three times for fairy vision for the night.

They are awakened by a wood nymph who tells them in pantomime that they are to follow her, but must not speak. The girls and a country boy who becomes one of the party see many strange things—Indian lovers, English colonists from the nearby settlement of Pawtucket on the eve of their departure for a new home in the wilderness, a picnic party from Portsmouth, and Summer and her court at revels. This scene is interrupted by the arrival of a fairyship bearing spirits of joy from the lands at war, seeking shelter in our more fortunate land.

The final scene shows the camp the next morning, and the girls discussing the events of the previous night.

Two goats brought here on the U. S. S. Washington from San Domingo figure prominently in the play. The cast includes over fifty characters.

There are to be solo dances by Miss Alice Squire, Mrs. Wallace Garrett and Mrs. Arthur Fritz. Miss Stella Millette makes an ideal wood nymph who awakens the girls. The production is under the management of Mrs. Chester Drake and Miss Haldan Salter, general managers; Mrs. Russell Sawyer, stage manager.

Miss Francis Squire and Miss Ardelle Marston are arranging the music. Miss Alice Squire is in charge of the dancing. Mr. Raymond Philbrick has been engaged as stage electrician.

HORSLEY ENTERTAINS VICE PRESIDENT MARSHALL

A reception was held recently at the Alexandria Hotel in Los Angeles in honor of Vice President Marshall and Mrs. Marshall, who are enjoying the sights of California enroute to Washington from San Francisco where Mr. Marshall officially opened the Panama Exposition.

It was the biggest affair in the Los Angeles social calendar and was attended by representatives of California's leading industry. The motion picture fraternity was represented by David Horsley, President of the Central Film Company, Bayonne, N. J., who is now in Los Angeles supervising the opening of his new studios there as a specially invited guest.

Mr. Marshall who is greatly interested in the development of the motion picture business from an educational and entertainment standpoint as well as its gigantic business proportions, was invited by Mr. Horsley to visit his new studio adjoining the Bostock Arena and Jungle, which Mr. Horsley also controls. The vice president spent a social hour with Mr. Horsley's guidance through the plant, and was greatly impressed with its significance. He complimented Mr. Horsley warmly on his close relationship with the pioneering film industry and declared "too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the men who with Mr. Horsley, raised the plans of the business from a meagre beginning to its present high status. Mrs. Marshall was delighted with the wonderful Bostock Arena and Jungle and for her a special rehearsal of the wild animals was given.

Three baby Mons recently arrived at the Arena and were christened by Mrs. Marshall. They now bear the appropriate titles of Bryon, the Seraper, Wilson the Obstinate and Marshall the Gentle.

MADE VISIT TO THE NAVY YARD

Masonic Grand Lodge Officers Entertained in Kittery and Portsmouth.

District Deputy Grand Master Alvah H. Place, of Newmarket, and District Grand Lecturer Albion E. Hayes, of Exeter, who on Monday evening held their annual visitation to St. Andrew's Lodge, A. P. and A. M., were entertained at luncheon this noon by Worshipful Master Emory R. Currier of Kittery. Past Master Wallace Hackett also was present.

Following lunch the visitors were taken through the navy yard, accompanied by Industrial Manager Adams, and shown the various workshops and other places of interest on the reservation.

The trip was of especial interest to Mr. Place as his great grandfather was one of the first settlers on the island on which the yard is located.

Later a trip through Kittery and Portsmouth was made by automobile. The visitors expressed themselves as being very pleased with the navy yard, Kittery and this city.

OBSEQUES.

Mrs. Mary Cavanaugh.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Mary Cavanaugh of Manchester were held at the St. Joseph's Cathedral on Monday at 10:30 a. m., and were attended by the largest number of people seen at a funeral in that house of worship in many years. Sorrowing friends in the home city of the deceased and many from other sections of the state were present to pay the last tribute of respect which the living can render the dead. A solemn high mass of requiem was offered by the priests of the Cathedral for the repose of her soul at which Rt. Rev. George Albert Guertin, Bishop of Manchester, and forty priests from parishes throughout the state were present in the sanctuary. The musical portion of the service was rendered by a quartet from the Cathedral choir. Numerous and beautiful floral tributes gave mute testimony of the love and esteem in which the deceased was held in her long and useful life and spelled more fully than words can explain, the extreme sorrow felt in the earthly parting of such a good woman. A committal service was held at the grave in which fifteen priests of the diocese assisted. Many people from Portsmouth, Exeter, Dover, Somersworth, Concord, North Stratford and other places attended.

Head line in the Boston—this morning: "Women at War on Plans for Peace." Nothing funny about that is there?

WHAT IS FASHION?

Fashion may be described as an evidence of the struggle between class and mass. Class is ever taking up something new in the effort to be distinctive. Mass is constantly coming pell mell after. And so the models are ever changing. What was new today may be old tomorrow. The fact that the advertising columns of this paper are constantly telling the story of the changing styles make them vitally interesting to the average woman. She reads because she wants the touch of fashion at her finger tips always.

HEADS TO COME OFF FRIDAY

Governor and Council Will Drop Democrats Holding Office.

The removal of Democrats holding state positions will likely begin this week by the governor and council. The first meeting since the adjournment of the legislature will be held on Friday. The governor will likely begin with Bank Commissioner George B. Farvard who will cease to be the single headed commission and will be replaced by the three-man board created by the legislature. State Auditor Guy H. Cutter will be the minority member and Frederick B. Nutting appears to be a sure thing for one of the majority berths, with Col. James O. Lyford, the other. If one more councillor will fall into line for him, Col. Lyford doubtless will be the chairman of the commission, if he gets the appointment.

Legacy Tax Commissioner, William J. Starr is also slated to retire to private life. His office was banded into the attorney general's department, where the work will be taken care of by Joseph S. Matthews, who he left off two years ago when Starr took hold. Mr. Matthews has been appointed and confirmed as assistant attorney general and will qualify whenever the governor is ready.

It is possible of course that some of the long pending police court appointments may be made, notably in Nashua and Portsmouth, where the governor and council have been at odds these many months over Judge Frank B. Glancy, the governor's choice in Nashua and County Solicitor Ernest Guphill, the council's pick for the Portsmouth berth. The administration press has not been talking much of the governor's speed record on these appointments.

Then there are the ten members of the board of trustees who are to take over the troubles of the board of control. The governor rather has the whip hand on the council in this matter as he had an amendment passed providing that the present board should hold on until three days after the appointment and confirmation of the new board. He should come pretty near naming this board, as the council scarcely will care more about backing the governor than separating a few not over-liked Democrats from good jobs.

CURRENT OPINION

Compulsory Military Service Destructive to Human Freedom.

Compulsory military service, more than any other single institution, has been destructive to human freedom. Enforced military training in the colleges and high schools points in this evil direction. It is a step toward the abandonment of our best American traditions. Its promotion at this time has been illogically excited by the spectacle of the failure in Europe of the system of which conscription is a vital part.

A certain amount of militarism is necessary, even in our republic. It represents a highly specialized profession, and those who practice it for the protection of society should have the best training possible.

Let the officers at West Point, Annapolis and Newport do their best with the tasks assigned to them. But these are not the tasks of general education, and they have no natural part in our training for civil life.—By David Starr Jordan, Stanford University.

Died April 27th at 59 Mt. Vernon street, this city, Henry P. Foster, aged 59 years, 7 months, 23 days.

George W. Watkins

Died April 26 at 103 High street, George W. Watkins, aged 72 years. Funeral services will be held from the home of J. P. Gardner, 103 High street Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Funeral strictly private.

FIRES WERE DUE TO POOR OIL

State Chemist Finds Kerosene Used in Nashua Had Low Flash-Point.

Concord, April 26.—State Chemist Charles D. Howard finds that two of three samples of kerosene sent from Nashua following fires in which the oil figured and death resulted had a flash point several degrees lower than the law requires.

Under the law the flash point should be at 100 degrees, but one of the samples showed it to be as low as 80 degrees, which makes it practically as dangerous as gasoline. The other sample was just within the requirement.

The report will be sent to the Nashua authorities.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly, and enjoy life, use Jindock Blood Bitters, the family system tonic. Price $1.00.

GIRLS' CLUB NOTES

The dancing class was held on Monday evening with a good attendance. The usual luncheon was held this noon.

The monthly social will be held on Tuesday evening from 7.45 to 10 o'clock. Refreshments of ices and cakes will be served. The social is in charge of the entertainment committee.

Wednesday evening the Dover Girls' Club have invited the local girls to attend a Coffee Party at the Dover clubrooms. If there are enough girls to go, an auto truck will be engaged.

The gymnasium class will be resumed on Thursday evening at 8.15. The cooking class will be held on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

The sum of $20 was realized from the recent auction bridge party held at the club. This sum is to go toward the running expenses of the club.

MANCHESTER LAD DIED IN RIVER

Rene Lambert Slipped From Wet Flashboards of Dam.

Rene Lambert, aged 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lambert of 131 Perry street, West Manchester, was drowned in the Piscataquog river on Monday afternoon. The boy was bathing and tried to cross the river on the Baldwin Hobbin Company dam. When about half way he slipped on the wet flashboards and struck on a ledge, receiving injuries which probably contributed to his death. His body was found in six feet of water.

DROPS DEAD AT HIS WORK

Hiram W. Muzzey, 82, Victim of Haste to Reach Shop at Antrim.

Antrim, April 26.—Hiram W. Muzzey, aged 82, dropped dead at his work in the Goodell Company cutlery shop this morning about 7.15 o'clock. The cause of death is said to have been heart failure.

Mr. Muzzey was apparently in his usual health when he started for work but was obliged to hurry as he was a little late. It is thought that the added exertion brought on his sudden death.

Mr. Muzzey was born in Hillsboro,

N. H. He was working in Springfield, Ill., when the Civil war broke out. He was a member of the Springfield Club and did active work in the campaign for the election of Lincoln as President.

When the call was issued Mr. Muzzey enlisted at once and was in the first regiment to march to the front. After this enlistment expired he removed to Antrim but soon re-enlisted in the 13th New Hampshire Volunteers. He served throughout the war and was honorably discharged.

Fifty years ago he married Emma H. Holdaway of Staunton, Ill., who with one daughter, Ethel L. Muzzey of Dorchester, Mass., survive him.

For nearly fifty years he has been employed by the Goodell Company. He was a member of Harmony Lodge, A. F. and A. M. of Hillsboro, where he joined in 1867, and was one of the oldest Masons in this town. He was a charter member of Ephraim Weston Post G. A. R., and served two years as commander.

SECOND RAIDER INTERNES HERE

Commander of German Cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm So Decides After Repairs Are Completed.

Washington, April 26.—Lieut. Captain Thierfelder, commander of the German commerce raider Kronprinz Wilhelm, late today informed collector of Customs Hamilton of Newport News, Va., that he would intern his ship for the war in American waters. "The commander presented this note: 'Herewith I have to officially inform you that I intern.'

The Wilhelm, after repairing at the shipyard and loading quantities of supplies began taking on 3000 tons of coal today. Rumors that she would attempt to dash to sea past the Allied warships waiting off the Virginia Capes had been current all day.

The United States government will maintain a military and naval patrol around the Wilhelm until she is taken to Norfolk.

It was suggested tonight that Captain Thierfelder's announcement was made after he received instructions from the German government, through the embassy here, not to attempt a dash through the line of hostile warships.

Officers and men on the Wilhelm will be allowed the freedom of the cities about Hampton Roads under the same rules made for the crew of the interned Prinz Eitel Friedrich.

FIRE CAUSED BY LIGHTNING

Two Buildings Struck at Lisbon, One Destroyed.

Lisbon, April 26.—Lisbon's public school building was struck by lightning during the severe electrical storm which swept this village about dawn today. The bolt badly shattered one side of the tower and split some of the slates on the roof of the main building.

At the farm of Thomas Forbes on Sugar Hill, a barn was struck and burned with the contents, including stock. It was one of the most severe and longest thunder storms ever experienced here at this time of year.

Several people experienced slight shocks. The telephone and electric wires were also more or less affected here and on Sugar Hill.

POLICE DRAGGING BROOK FOR BODY

A detail of police today dragged Cobscook Brook for the body of Albrecht Lavole of 222 Lake avenue Manchester, who was reported as drowned. Lavole accompanied by Dimore Senneville of 79 Laurel street, went fishing Sunday. Senneville was some distance ahead of his companion who had brushed at a shallow place to the other side of the river when he heard him shout. Returning he noticed that the stepping stones at a deep and turbulent part of the brook were wet as though some one had crossed part way upon them and then missed his footing and fallen in.

Senneville could find no further signs of his companion. After an hour or more of unavailing search he returned to Manchester and reported the man's disappearance.

Lavole was unable to swim. He was 25 years old.

OFFICERS ELECTED

One of the items of business transacted at a well attended business meeting of the Epworth League at the First Methodist Episcopal church on Monday evening was the election of officers for the ensuing year. The election resulted as follows:

President—D. H. Crossley.
First Vice President—Miss Marguerite Jenness.
Second Vice President—Miss Irene Johnson.
Third Vice President—Mrs. Inez McIntire.
Fourth Vice President—Miss Winifred Winslow.
Secretary—Mrs. Florence Crossley.
Treasurer—Frederick Harmon.
Junior League Supt.—Miss Miriam Schurman.
Organist—Miss Marguerite Jenness.

It is planned to have a special service celebrating the Epworth League Anniversary, on Sunday, May 23, the League and the Junior League uniting. This service promises to be especially interesting and attractive.

Following the business session, a social time was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Refreshments of ices and fancy wafers were served.

The arrangements for the social were made by Mrs. Helen Dillon, the retiring fourth vice president.

"MUTT AND JEFF SCORE ANOTHER BIG HIT."

Little did Dad Fisher think when he conceived the idea of the "Mutt and Jeff" cartoon series that it would prove to be the most remarkable success a newspaper artist ever achieved, nor that his effort would be the nucleus of a play that will live forever as the greatest laugh producer for young and old the single has ever known. Of course, it was Fisher's good fortune to have had the New York American, which has probably the largest circulation of any newspaper in the world, adopt his daily comedy picture, to which fact is due a great part of the success. The fact that Mr. Gus Hill produced and managed the play, was also good fortune for "Mutt and Jeff." There is no more successful and consequently able showman in the country than Gus Hill. It can be truthfully said that he never had a failure, which is due to good judgement and not good luck. "Mutt and Jeff in Mexico" in their fourth season bid fair to be more profitable than either of the previous two, is due to the personal attention Mr. Hill gives to every attraction that bears his name. He never allows anything to become shopworn or molten. Every year a show is sent out to tour the country. It is a new one in everything but the title. No matter how many times the old title may be used, the material in the entertainment is not permitted to stagnate, therefore managers and theatregoers may always rest assured that at every visit of our old friends "Mutt and Jeff" the entire offering will be new. "In Mexico" the vehicle used for laughing purposes this season is an innovation in play writing, far in advance of anything you have ever been offered at any price of admission, which fact can be proven by a visit to the Portsmouth Theatre on Thursday evening, April 29, when the big "Mutt and Jeff in Mexico" production, requiring a full sixty foot ear load of scenery and properties with fifty star performers, will appear for

The Celebrated Franklin

The nice part about driving a Franklin is that there is not a lot to think about. You can start out on a drive and not wonder whether anything might go wrong.

Franklin direct air cooling takes away the bugaboo of freezing in the winter and overheating in the summer.

Engine and Vehicle Patented July 2, 1908.

Weight 2750 Lbs., 4 1/2 in. tires—Price $2150.

THE FACT-BACKED FINE AUTOMOBILE

Comfort in an automobile is more than a matter of upholstery. That alone won't keep away road shocks. The type of springs has a lot to do with comfort, yet that is not the only factor. True, the upholstery in the Franklin is very comfortable. The full-elliptic springs are the easiest riding possible. But there is still another big factor—

The Franklin has a wood chassis frame, very flexible, and absorbing road shocks. The wood frame has been a Franklin principle for fourteen years. Flexibility through and through is the secret of Franklin comfort.

The Franklin is sold on facts. It is a fact that on September 24, 1914, 116 Franklin dealers in 116 different parts of the country ran 100 miles on low gear without stopping the engine—this in 10 hours time.

It is a fact that on May 1, 1914, 94 stock Franklins, running in 94 different parts of the country, averaged 32.8 miles per gallon of gasoline.

It is a fact that records from owners show an average of almost 9,000 miles on a set of tires.

It is a fact, which we would be glad to demonstrate, that a Franklin goes farthest in a day with the greatest comfort and at the least expense.

The Franklin is the efficient car.

"CYCLONE" BURNS IS GIVEN THE DECISION

Wrestling Match Develops Into a Free for All, In Which Principals and Referee Take Part in the Scrimmage

Cyclone Burns was awarded the decision over "Dixie" Bob Allen Monday night at the wrestling bout held in Freeman's Hall, winning the best two out of three falls. After the first fall won by Allen the bout looked like a free for all for a few minutes. Bill Dryden undertook to throw both men, and was in a fair way to do it when things quieted down.

It is a question in the minds of the fans as to who was at fault. But after the men were told to break, when they were off the mat, they refused to do so. Farmer Dryden, who isn't exactly a dead end on the mat himself attempted to separate the men. He succeeded after a time but they were at it again before the word was given and Bill got into it once more. In the general rough-house Allen struck Dryden in the face. The police came to the side of the mat and peace was again declared. Dryden announced that Allen was disqualified for using unfair and rough tactics and awarded the fall to Burns. Allen left the ring without any talk but after the fans were quieted, Dryden stated that he was trying to referee the match and awarded the fall to Burns as he believed Allen was at fault.

George Tuohy, one of the best known sporting men in the business stepped into the ring and announced that Dryden was justified in what he had done, inasmuch as he was the "boss" and if the men refused to do as directed the men first at fault was the loser.

Allen stated that he was willing to let the match go to a finish and try to throw Allen rather than take the decision.

The first fall went to Allen after 39 minutes and 30 seconds of the hardest kind of work. Several times each man was in a dangerous position but clever work got them out of almost certain defeat. Allen's winning hold was a head-scissors.

After the rough house tussling was over the men came onto the mat each determined to make short work of the go. Dryden insisted that they shake hands and then for fifteen minutes the observers witnessed some of the fastest work that had been put on in this city. Burns was forcing the match every minute with Allen on the defensive. Burns finally won by the aid of a half Nelson and Dryden awarded him the match.

After the bout Allen stated that he was at fault in the trouble as he had no right to lose his head.

In the preliminary Butcher Smart defeated Jack Eldredge in two straight falls, the first in six minutes and the second in three. Both were won on a half Nelson.

PUPILS AID HUNT FOR MURDER SUSPECT.

New York, April 26.—Thousands of school children and hundreds of mail carriers are today aiding the police in seeking Joseph Hanel, the former convict suspected of the murder of Mrs. Julius Hanel, the Brooklyn woman who had befriended him.

Circulars bearing Hanel's picture and his description were posted in every public school in greater New York. The pupils were all instructed to watch for him, and if they saw him to notify a policeman. The circulars were also posted at the postoffice and all sub-stations, so that the mail carriers could aid in the search for the suspected slayer.

THE HERALD HEARS

That the Portsmouth high school team sprang a surprise on Manchester high in the game last Saturday.

That the team from the Queen City had looked for an easy victory over the local players.

George S. Chandler, 420 Pleasant street Portsmouth, says: "I do a great deal of walking in my work, and in that way my kidneys became weakened, causing me much suffering. About three years ago I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and began using them. They cured me and I have had little trouble since. Sometimes when I overwork or do any heavy lifting, I notice lameness in my back, but a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills bring relief. I have recommended this remedy to many of my friends and in every instance where it has been tried, benefit has followed."

UNVEIL MONUMENT TO HERO'S OF REVOLUTION

YOUNG WOMEN, ALL DIRECT DESCENDANTS OF THE HEROES REPRESENT THE THIRTEEN ORIGINAL STATES

Savannah, Georgia, April 25.—The monument erected by the national government in old Midway cemetery, in Liberty county, to the memories of General Daniel Stewart and General James Screven, Revolutionary heroes, was unveiled with elaborate ceremonies today. Southern Memorial Day. Troops from Fort Screven took part.

Thirteen young women, all direct descendants of Generals Stewart and Screven, were selected to represent the thirteen original states at the unveiling. They were dressed in white, and stood on either side of the monument as it was unveiled. Two of them, those nearest to the two heroes in whose honor the monument was erected, pulled the strings which revealed the memorial.

Miss Eliza Maxwell Stevens, of Dorchester, a great-granddaughter of General Stewart, and Miss Mary Helen Quartermaster, of Savannah, a great-granddaughter of General Screven, were the sponsors in chief. Miss Evelyn Fittard, Miss Alice Hart Young, Miss Hattie Gignilliat, Miss Gladys Cassels and Miss John Norman, of Savannah; Miss Josephine Law, and Miss Van Eyren Green, of Dorchester; Miss Marie Way, of Flemington; Miss Mary Miller, and Miss Mary Frazier, of Hinesville, and Miss May Kelly, of Jacksonville.

As personal representative of President Wilson, Henry S. Brockenkage, Assistant Secretary of War, was present as the guest of honor and made the principal address. The Stone Mountain granite was employed. The memorial's height is fifty feet. The shaft itself is thirty feet tall by three feet wide and is of solid masonry. The monument is thirty feet wide at its base.

General Stewart was a youngster during the revolution, but enlisted in the cause of liberty. He was captured by the British, but made his escape from a man-of-war at night by swimming ashore. He was brooded a general by the Georgia legislature. General Screven, at the age of thirty-two, fell at the battle of Sunbury, a short distance from Midway. He was lured into an ambush while upon a reconnaissance expedition and was pierced by eleven bullets. The British captured and fired the house in which he lay dying.

Theodore Roosevelt and President Wilson both have ancestral ties at Midway. The former is a member of the Stewart-Screven monument commission.

The movement to erect a monument to the joint memory of the revolutionary heroes, when it was ascertained, through an old history of the Midway congregation, that Congress had in 1801 appropriated five thousand dollars for a monument to General Screven. Neither the Journal of Congress nor any other record disclosed further disposition of the matter. Advantage was never taken of the appropriation. An appropriation of ten thousand dollars was more recently made by Congress for a monument to the memories of General Screven and General Stewart jointly.

FIGHT AGAINST SULLIVAN

Charges Against Him for His Past Record as Member of License Board.

The governor and council have hit upon the expedient of giving a hearing on the charges that Chairman Edmund Sullivan of the license commission has played politics in the issuance of north-country licenses. This appears to be the basis of the opposition of the majority of the council to the appointment of Mr. Sullivan as the minority member of the new executive board. Governor Spaulding does not credit the charges against Mr. Sullivan, but he has expressed a willingness to hear the charges and will withdraw his support of Mr. Sullivan if the charges are sustained.

On the other hand, it is assumed the majority councilors, who thus far have stood in the way of Mr. Sullivan's appointment on the new commission, will recede from their opposition to him, if the charges are proven baseless. Party reasons are said to be the main objection to Mr. Sullivan. So many objections to his appointment on the executive board have come in from prominent north-country Republicans that the councilors figure it had politics to keep the Berlin man on the board. The complaints are that he has discriminated against Republican applicants for licenses and that he has been building a powerful political machine of his own.

As has been said, the governor is disinclined to believe the reports against Mr. Sullivan, but he is willing to be shown. Whether or not Mr. Sullivan continues as a dispenser of licenses therefore depends on the outcome of his hearing, which bids fair to attract much interest, as the proponents and opponents of Mr. Sullivan are quite as intense in their feelings as was the case in the recent Hancock investigation. Mr. Sullivan's friends assert he will come through as scathless as did Dr. Hancock.

Meanwhile the speculation as to the other candidates is very warm. It looks as if former Chairman Cyrus H. Little of Manchester and former Commissioner Henry W. Keyes of Haverhill, the Republican members of the original license board could have their old jobs back for the asking. Mr. Little is reported to have declared positively that he could not consider reappointment on account of his frail health. Mr. Keyes is thought also not to be keen for reappointment. His reason is refuted to be a sting from the gubernatorial bee, which is expected to get him into the running for the Republican nomination next year.

Mr. Keyes leading the songsters and fun-makers in the closing hours of the legislative session gave an impression to dispassionate spectators that he was disposed to play the ball-fellow with a purpose and those who are nursing candidates of their own, or would like to see somebody else get the nomination did not enthuse over the hit Keyes made with his fellow-roysterers last Wednesday night.

Manchester Republicans are becoming alarmed over the outlook for a place on the executive board. The other Republican candidates in the open are Senator William Marcotte and former Alderman N. E. Biron, both French-speaking citizens. In the offering in Manchester there are also former City Solicitor Oscar P. Moreau, former City Solicitor Aime E. Boisvert and Alexis P. Bisson. An apparent disposition on the part of the council to shy at French-speaking candidates is what causes the alarm. Political expediency in the cause of the chariness, for it is feared any appointment will alienate

Then there is Dwight Hall of Dover, chairman of the Republican state committee, and warm personal friend of Governor Spaulding, reputed in fact to have been the only real warm adherent of the governor in the late unpleasantness at state headquarters. It is likely that no appointment could give the governor greater satisfaction than that of his close personal friend.

EDISON NOTES

Winners of Contests

John G. Mayers won the prize with his title of "His Peasant Princess," and Marie Louise Farley the prize for the best ending to the play which was left unfinished, in the contests recently held by Manager Dollinger of the Claremont Theatre, New York, who held them in conjunction with the weekly showing, Thursday evening of all current Edison films.

Next Thursday evening, the Edison feature, "A Deadly Hate," and "The Stoning" will be shown and the leads in both plays respectively, Marc McDermott and Viola Dana, will appear personally and greet the photoplay patrons.

Another Lee Arthur Feature
Edison is producing the second of Lee Arthur's three reels, "The Test," in which will be featured Herbert Prior, supported by a leading woman, new to Edison films, Louisita Valentine. Miss Valentine played leads for Edison director James Castle, who had his own stage production of "Graustark" and also when he directed "Beverly of Graustark." The play is tensity dramatic, being built around a lawyer who falls from grace, reformed and is later met with his earlier misdoings.

Edison Players at Baltimore Ball
Edison players and Manager Horace O. Plimpton returned from the ball given by the Baltimore Branch of the National League of Exhibitors full of praise for the right royal welcome accorded them by the exhibitors and fans. Those who attended were Miriam Nesbitt, Marc McDermott, Gertrude McCoy Augustus Phillips, Viola Dana, Herbert Prior, Edward Earle and Mabel Trunelle.

When Baltimore had welcomed with praise aplenty, those players who had been born there, Herbert Prior brought down the house by introducing himself with the speech "I should have been born in Baltimore. I know it because I'm so fond of your fish that grows here between two shells—oysters." Among other fellows called for a speech at the banquet following were Marc McDermott and Mabel Trunelle. One woman fan registered too strongly for Viola Dana's comfort her appreciation of Miss Dana's work in "The Stoning"—where the actress is seen in a coffin—by grabbing Miss Dana by the chin and pulling her head around until she could look searchingly into Miss Dana's eyes. Then with a relieved sigh, "Oh I'm glad you are alive! I saw you so dead," she contentedly disappeared in the crowd leaving Miss Dana rubbing her face.

NEW YORK WOMAN CASHIER BLACKJACKED AND ROBBED

New York, April 26—Another bold daylight attack and robbery of a bank messenger occurred today when Rose Wisniewski, cashier of a Harlem wholesale grocery concern, was blackjacked on the street while she was on the way to the bank with the firm's funds. The thieves secured $371 in cash and $100 in checks and escaped, although scores of persons saw her struck down.

Miss Wisniewski was stunned, but recovered in a short time. She was accustomed to take the firm's deposits to the bank every morning.

NEW EXAMINATION FOR WEST POINT

Washington, April 26—As a result of about thirty failures among prospective

West Point cadet candidates in the March examinations, Secretary Garrison has ordered an additional examination May 25 next, which will be held at 16 army posts in all parts of the country. The successful candidates will be admitted to the Military Academy on July 1.

The present first class at West Point numbering 164 members, will exceed the second lieutenant class available on July 1, according to present estimates. There are only 105 prospective vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant including 39 in the engineers, 31 in the infantry, 27 in the cavalry and eight in the coast artillery.

THE EUROPEAN WAR

Rev. F. J. Scott at the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening gave an intensely interesting address on the subject: "The Present European War." Some of the points which were noted in the sermon are given here, as the people in general will be interested to know the attitude of a Christian minister regarding the great conflict.

"This is not primarily a fight between nations, but a conflict between two ideas, one of which shall rule the world. We deprecate the unparalleled slaughter, the destruction of the art treasures, which can never be replaced, the suffering and bleeding of conquered provinces, the bombardment of unfortified places, the sinking of merchant vessels and attendant loss of life of non-combatants, and the savagery and hate which are evident. Some say the cause of the war is commercial rivalry. If that is it, call it by its right name. It is greed for money. I believe a purely economic reason is not compelling. Nations are like individuals, and no person is compelled by such a reason to perform mass. If militarism is agreed to be the cause of the war, then the question must be asked: 'Is power the only desirable thing? Is might right?'

So long as the spirit that might makes right is in the world there is bound to be war. Sin received its greatest blow at the time of its apparently great triumph, the crucifixion of Christ. So will this great war because of its great outrages and monstrosities, prove the undoing of war. The cause of universal peace will be greatly aided.

A true democracy never wants war. We ought to greatly laud and honor our President for the masterful way in which he has kept this country at peace.

This war has shown the falsity and inefficiency of purely personal culture, the enormity and reality of human sin and the need of the world for Christian realities. The old gospel that all men need a Saviour was never more to be commended than now.

TO HOLD RACE ON MEMORIAL DAY

PORTSMOUTH DRIVING CLUB WILL HAVE INITIAL MEET AT ROCKINGHAM PARK

The work of repairing the old Rockingham Park race track on Sherburne avenue, which has been leased by the Southern New Hampshire Agricultural Association, was commenced on Monday under the direction of James W. Barrett. Twenty laborers started regrading the track and rebuilding the fence enclosing the grounds.

The Portsmouth Driving Club is planning to hold its initial race at the park on Memorial Day and work in and about the grounds will be rushed so as to have everything in readiness for the opening day.

The officers and directors of the Driving Club will work hard to revive the interest in horse racing in this city and vicinity.

SHOOTING ENDS CHICAGO ENOCH ARDEN ROMANCE

Chicago, April 26—Mrs. Gabriel Loeffler, still young and pretty, is fighting for her life on a hospital cot today because she was true to a young husband who went away three years ago to dig in the frozen dirt of Alaska for gold. Physicians say it is not likely she will live.

"If you don't hear from me within two years consider yourself a free agent, for I shall be dead," he had said when he went away, three years ago. So she waited.

The two years passed and there came to live at the house where she boarded Leopold Kellner. They met and he wooed her. He urged the improbability of her husband returning—the time limit had expired—but still she refused. Finally, she agreed that if Gabriel did not return within six months, she would marry him.

The announcement of the engagement was to have been made Saturday night. Saturday morning a battered letter struggled in from Alaska. Gabriel had struck it rich and was coming back to get her. She showed the letter to Leopold.

He read it slowly, then just as slowly he pulled a revolver and fired. She dropped.

"Hell! have to come farther than Chicago to get you, dear," he murmured as he sent a bullet crashing through his own brain and fell dead.

OFFICIAL VISITATION OF ST. ANDREW'S LODGE

Local Masons Visited By Grand Lodge Officers--Banquet Served to One of Largest Masonic Gatherings Held in This City.

The annual official visitation of St. Andrews Lodge No. 56, A. F. & M. was made on Monday evening in Masonic Hall, by Right Worshipful Alvan H. Place, District Deputy Grand Master of Newmarket, and Right Worshipful Albin E. Hayes, District Grand Lecturer, of Exeter.

It was one of the largest gatherings in a visitation ever held in this city, the hall being crowded to its capacity. There was an exceptionally large representation of navy men present. Among the out of town visitors were ones from Exeter, Dover, Kittery, Rye, New Castle and other surrounding towns.

The work of the evening was the conferring of the fellowcraft degree in full. The work was rendered in a highly commendable manner by the officers of the lodge, and much praise was forthcoming from the visitors.

During the evening extended remarks were made by both District Deputy Grand Master Place and by District Grand Lecturer Hayes, and about 280 at the tables. The following list of the banquet was served, Rowe and Vandy catering.

Following being the menu:
Chicken Pie
Baked Sugar Cured Ham
French Fried Potatoes
Parker House Rolls
Bannana Fritters, with Sauce
Cake
Harlequin Ice Cream
Coffee
Cigars

During the banquet Past Master Wallace Hackett made a very interesting address on Masonry, past, present and future.

The remainder of the evening was passed in a social manner. Music was furnished by the Lotus Quartet, and the old time songs were sung.

The last congress for use at the Norfolk navy yard in the Wellman-Seaver Morgan Company of Cleveland, Ohio for $350,994.

The list of bidders included four American firms, two Dutch and one German. The two lowest bids were from American firms and a third American firm was practically a tie with the lowest foreign bid.

A Few More Added

In addition to the several mechanics and helpers made on Monday, three coppersmiths were called by the Industrial Department today.

Report New Skipper

Report has it that Commander L. M. Nulton commanding the U. S. S. Montana, has been transferred and will be succeeded by Commander Chester Wells.

May Try it Again

After drilling 500 feet or more, the Barker Artisan Well Company of Providence, failed to get the required water supply in a location near the dry dock and have moved the drilling apparatus from the yard. It is reported that another attempt may be made in a location near the yard fire engine house.

Chester Will Take Stores

A lot of stores from the local yard are being shipped to Philadelphia to be taken by the Chester to the cruises Tennessee and North Carolina in European waters.

H. Fisher Eldredge and family formerly of this city, have returned from California and reopened their summer residence at Chatham.

Here's a hat for you. ## 1800 FEET OF NEW HOSE

New Equipment Added to Fire Department.

Eighteen hundred feet of double jacket hose has been added to the equipment of the Portsmouth Fire Department. The hose is a special make for the local department and arrived on Monday from the Stoughton Rubber Company at Stoughton, Mass. It was inspected by Chief Woods and will be put in service at the central fire station. The hose has long been needed and the firemen are much pleased to get it.

AEOLIAN QUARTET SCORES SUCCESS

The concert given at Association Hall Monday night by the Aeolian Male Quartet assisted by Blanche Allen Leavitt was voted a notable success. The entertainment was under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and the large audience was composed of a representative gathering of Portsmouth's music-loving public.

Each number was received with well merited and hearty applause and numerous encores were demanded and given.

Miss Leavitt read "Behind the Beyond," a three act modern problem play and her efforts were greatly appreciated by her hearers. Miss Leavitt is a dramatic reader of no little ability and her presentation of the drama was excellent.

The Quartet, composed of Ernest L. Cook, first tenor; John W. Mitchell, second tenor; Alexander Billbruck, baritone; and Ira A. Newick, bass. This organization is a relatively new one in the local musical field, but their finished work prophesies them being heard in many cities outside the confines of Rockingham county in the future.

The program:
A War Song of the Cavaliers..... Quartet
Behind the Beyond (a three-act modern problem play) First Act..... Miss Leavitt
The Bugler..... Mr. Newick
Beauteous Night (Barcarolle from the Tales of Hoffman)..... Quartet
